Auditors' Report on Half Year Ended and Year to Date Standalone Financial Results of the Company pursuant to the Regulations 33 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations 2015

To
The Board of Directors of Transwind Infrastructures Limited
Ahmedabad

Report on the audit of Statement of Standalone Financial Results

1. Opinion

We have audited the half year ended and year to date results of accompanying Statement of Standalone Financial Results of Transwind Infrastructures Limited, ("the Company"), for the half year ended and year ended March 31, 2022, (the Statement) being submitted by the Company pursuant to the requirements of the Regulations 33 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations 2015 (the Listing Regulations, 2015).

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the Statement:

- is presented in accordance with the requirements of the Regulations 33 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 and
- gives a true & fair view in conformity with the aforesaid Accounting Standards and other accounting policies generally accepted in India of the net profit and other financial information of the Company for the half year ended and for the year ended March 31, 2022.

2. Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the auditors' responsibilities for the audit of the Statement of Standalone Financial Results section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the code of ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the Statement of Standalone Financial Results under the provisions of the Act and the rules there under, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the code of ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

3. Management's responsibility for the Statement of Standalone Financial Results

The Company's board of directors are responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of this statement of Standalone Financial Results that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the accounting standards specified under section 133 of the Act and in compliance with Regulations 33 of the Listing Regulations. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the statement of Standalone Financial Results that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the Statement of Standalone Financial Results, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The board of directors are also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

4. Auditors' responsibilities for the audit of the Statement of Standalone Financial Results

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Statement of Standalone Financial Results as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of this Statement of Standalone Financial Results.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

Gattani & Associates

Chartered Accountants

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the Statement of Standalone Financial Results, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Companies Act, 2013, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company has adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditors' report to the related disclosures in the Statement of Standalone Financial Results or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors' report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the statement of Standalone Financial Results, including the disclosures, and whether the Statement of Standalone Financial Results represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

Gattani & Associates

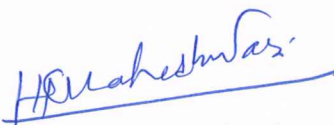

Chartered Accountants

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding in dependence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

5. Other Matters

The statement of Standalone Financial Results includes the results for the half year ended March 31, 2022, being the balancing figures between the audited figures in respect of full financial year ended on March 31, 2022, and the published unaudited year to date figures up to the half year of the current financial year, which were subjected to a limited review by us, as required under the Listing Regulations.
